ENDS 10 YEARS SERVICE. Chief John Conklin (front center) was honored last night by members of the regular and volunteer fire department with a dinner and brief program attended by 35 men and wives at the fire hall. Men in the photo were all in the department when John became chief 10 years ago. Left to right, back row: Bill Stump, John Wooden, Vinton Thompson, Bill Schaller, Leonard Gokee; front row: Charles Laubrich, Bill Meindl, John Conklin and A. M. West. The cake, with miniature trucks and fire hat, was donated by Mrs. Bertha Turk in gratitude to Fireman Roy Rodgers for saving the life of Maxine Barker Sunday when her clothing caught fire. Giving brief testimonials were Mayor Chester A. Crago and City Manager Ernest L. Neumann on behalf of the city; William F. Schaller on behalf of the retired firemen; John Wooden and Vinton Thompson for the volunteers and A. M. West for the regulars.
